Assembly Instructions

Remove the system from the box.

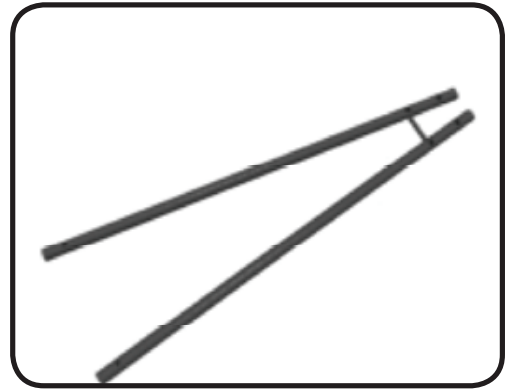

Place the bottom section onto the foot, making sure that it snaps into place. Make sure the narrow end is down.

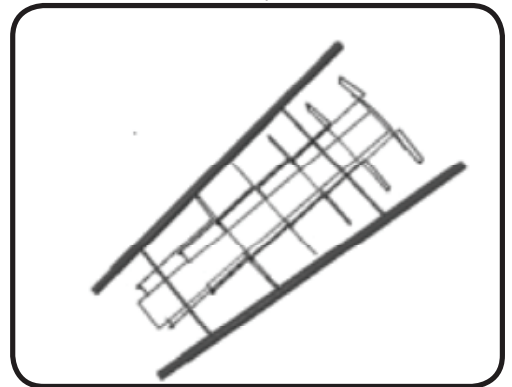

Place the top section onto the bottom section, making sure that it snaps into place.

Your system is now ready to be used.

Find the bottom section of the rack. The bottom section has both ends open as shown above.

Find the top section of the rack. The top section has the literature pockets as pictured above.

If done correctly there should be a slight backwards slope to the system.

Reverse the procedure to disassemble
